THE FAKE NEWS PROBLEM IN ONE CHART

Is peer opinion filling a void left by failing trust in mass media?

Traffic sources

Low barriers to social media and hyperpartisanism have been blamed for the proliferation of so-called “fake news”.

Fake news gets 4X more of its traffic from social media than established news websites.

Trust in mass media

% Great deal / fair amount of trust

But is social media the only source of blame? Trust in mass media as a whole is declining rapidly across the board.

With trust in media at an all-time low of 32%, it's no surprise that people are turning to alternative sources for news.

HOW TO SPOT FAKE NEWS

CONSIDER THE SOURCE

Click away from the story to investigate the site, its mission and its contact info.

READ BEYOND

Headlines can be outrageous in an effort to get clicks. What's the whole story?

CHECK THE AUTHOR

Do a quick search on the author. Are they credible? Are they real?

SUPPORTING SOURCES?

Click on those links. Determine if the info given actually supports the story.

CHECK THE DATE

Reposting old news stories doesn't mean they're relevant to current events.

IS IT A JOKE?

If it is too outlandish, it might be satire. Research the site and author to be sure.

CHECK YOUR BIASES

Consider if your own beliefs could affect your judgement.

ASK THE EXPERTS

Ask a librarian, or consult a fact-checking site.

➤ Do's

- ❖ Have proper balance. Adding salt would add taste to a recipe, but adding excess would spoil it
- ❖ Entertainment and social life is essential for life, but improper proportion would spoil the life
- ❖ Do use social media for professional network building
- ❖ Share knowledge you acquired in your profession. It would help others as well as you to attain heights in your career
- ❖ Disconnect from negativity
- ❖ Unfriend or block those who continuously post negative comments on you or on others.

SOCIAL MEDIA – FAKE NEWS

➤ Don'ts

- ❖ "Likes" by others of your posts are not achievements. Go after the real achievements in the life
- ❖ Don't believe everything you read and watch
- ❖ Don't share any confidential information in social networks
- ❖ Don't trust unknown people
- ❖ Don't scan QR codes from unknown source. It could hack your mobile and bank accounts.
